

Andre Rancourt was born in Quebec City and has enjoyed the life of a military father having the opportunity to live and travel in many European countries. Andre is a retired Chartered Accountant and joined the KYC board in 2023. Father of two grown kids he is now the proud grandpa of seven grandkids. Always interested in our youth, Andre has been a Big Brother through the BBLs organization as well as being in the board of the Inuvik NWT Youth Centre.