

Sociology, along with a Master's in Sports Business and Management. Abby began her career with TMSI Sports Management, where she continues to play an active role—particularly within their youth programs and golf division—bringing her expertise and enthusiasm to a wide range of programs. Her dedication to youth development is especially evident in the variety of sports, activity, and golf camps she leads throughout the city during the summer. Outside of her professional life, Abby enjoys golfing, walking her dogs, and connecting with friends over a good cup of coffee.
